About the Series

The editors welcome manuscripts of original research on the pre-conditions, character, and consequences of ethnic-based conflicts: (a) the forms of violence associated with ethnic conflict, (b) the causal drivers of such violence, and (c) the means for violence-mitigation or prevention. Also suitable for this series are studies of ethnic conflict that address the historical intersections of race, religion, and nationalism as a prelude to violence.

BOOK OF THE DISAPPEARED

THE QUEST FOR TRANSNATIONAL JUSTICE

Jennifer Heath and Ashraf Zahedi, Editors

Ethnic Conflict: Studies in Nationality, Race, and Culture

Book of the Disappeared confronts worldwide human rights violations of enforced disappearance and genocide and explores the global quest for justice with forceful, outstanding contributions by respected scholars, expert practitioners, and provocative contemporary artists. This profoundly humane book spotlights our historic inhumanity while offering insights for survival and transformation.

Jennifer Heath is an Independent scholar, Author/Editor, Activist, and Curator.

Ashraf Zahedi, a sociologist, is a Visiting Scholar at the University of California, Santa Barbara.

"Book of the Disappeared is destined to be an essential work in the field of human rights for years to come. The authors argue that the search for the disappeared must be conducted for three reasons: to locate, identify, and return the remains of the disappeared to family members for proper burial; to gather evidence to hold perpetrators accountable; and to set the historical record straight."

—Eric Stover, Co-Faculty Director, Human Rights Center, School of Law, University of California, Berkeley
